

Thank you for applying to Rare Genomics Institute.

Hi you for your interest in volunteering with Rare Genomics Institute!
Here is more information about our organization and our work.

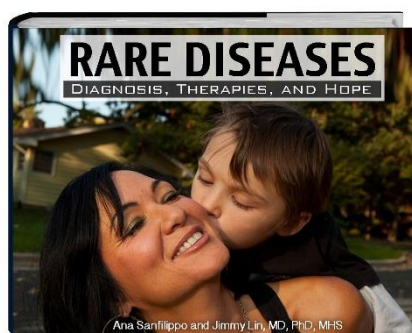

Section 1: Information

Please spend some time learning about us before deciding to volunteer.

Here is a good introduction video:

- Overview: <http://vimeo.com/87513591>
- TEDxMidAtlantic: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=evC3HGI-Lnc>

Pitch Deck: <http://raregenomics.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/05/RGI-pitchdeck.pdf>

Ebook: <http://raregenomics.org/ebooks/>

Here is select written press about our work:

- TED (Ideas Worth Spreading): <http://bit.ly/1bpTjqQ>
- Bloomberg Businessweek: <http://buswk.co/1eXoNLp>
- Forbes: <http://onforb.es/1iJNuk1>
- Salon: <http://bit.ly/1bpTuZy>
- The Atlantic: <http://bit.ly/IRASqz>
- BBC: <http://bbc.in/1hAvbK1>
- TIME: <http://ti.me/199Lyb3>

Section 2: RGI Application

Thanks for already submitting your LinkedIn Profile. After reviewing the material above, if you are still interested in volunteering for RGI, please apply by filling out the application here. (Should take no longer than 15-20 minutes).

<http://raregenomics.org/volunteer-application/>

Section 3: Interview

We will be starting interviews in two weeks. After we receive your application, we will be reaching out to setup interviews.

Thanks again for your interest and we look forward to helping children with rare diseases together.

Best,

Jimmy Lin, MD, PhD, MHS

President, Rare Genomics Institute

Copyright © 2014 Rare Genomics Institute, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you applied to volunteer for Rare Genomics Institute.

Our mailing address is:

Rare Genomics Institute

4100 Forest Park

St. Louis, MO 63108