

Rare Genomics Institute Skills Sheet

Welcome to the Rare Genomics Institute. We believe that we have some of the best and the brightest individuals volunteering with our organization, and we thank you for your time.

In an effort to give back, we want to know what skills, training, information etc., you would like to gain as a volunteer. We will work to help you realize your desires.

We also believe that our volunteers have skills and expertise that can be shared with others. If you have a skill and would be willing to share, train, or mentor your colleagues, please fill out the appropriate information below. Once again, thank you for your service.
